Joseph Lawrence Moffatt

Born Sept. 20, 1827 at Page Brook, Chenango
County, N. Y.

Died at Greenville,
Mich., May 28, 1909.

His father was (Eliphalet) Elipha E. Moffatt who was born at South Hadley Falls, Mass., on Oct. 27th, 1800. His father is thought to be Daniel.

His mother was Polly Cole Moffatt, who was born at Bridgeport, Conn., on April 20th, 1808.

Grandfather Mr.
Lola Moffatt

Death of J. L. Moffatt Joseph L. Moffatt passed from at his home in Greenville, Thursday, aged 81 years, 8 months and He had been in feeble health for two years or more with a complicated chronic ailments, the immediate cause of his death being heart failure.
He was born in Chenango
N. Y., Sept. 20, 1827. He was deceased was born in Chenango
N. Y., Sept. 20, 1827. He was December 27, 1855, to Julia Gousurvives him, together with his Fred E. of Stanton, Frank D. of Edwin E. of Sheridan, and W.
and Roy L. of Greenville.

The deceased was a veteran of the War, having enlisted at Lockport, in the 7th U. S. Infantry in 1863.
a good musician; he was assigned as first clarinet player in the regiment, where he served until he was discharged for disability in 1866, he came to Stanton, where his family preceded him the year previous.
He lived in Stanton until 1882, when he bought a farm in Evergreen township. Several years later he moved to Greenville, which place has been his home for eighteen years. He was formerly member of Stanton Post No. 37, G. A. on his removal to Greenville, joined Post in that city and was a member until the time of his decease.

Though suffering much at times from diseases contracted in the army, he was an industrious man, and was a good man at both the shoemaking and car-trades. He built and owned, at different times, three houses in Stanton, one farm, and later built the home which his family now occupies on North Lafayette street, in Greenville. He was a citizen and a kind and loving husband and father.

Funeral services will be held at his home Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock.
The remains will be brought to Stanton Monday morning for interment in Hill cemetery.

At Rest.
The funeral of Joseph L. Moffatt was held at the home in Greenville, Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, the services being conducted by the Christian Science church and the officers and members of the Greenville Grand Army Post, of which Mr.
Moffatt was a member.
The remains were brought to Stanton Monday morning for interment. The funeral cortege was escorted by Stanton Marine Band from the P. M. depot to Main street, where it formed a part of the Decoration Day procession, and to the solemn strains of the funeral march was escorted by the members of the Stanton
Grand Army Posts and Women's Relief Corps to Forest Hill cemetery. The casket, draped with an American flag and covered with beautiful flowers, was borne from the funeral car to the grave by the four sons of the deceased, and after a brief burial service and prayer by Rev. Wm.
Wiedenoest, the earthly remains were reverently lowered to their last resting place.

Joseph L. Moffatt died of paralysis at his home on North Lafayette street this morning. Mr. Moffatt was an old resident of this city. He was a member of the local G. A. R. post, who will have charge of the funeral services to be held Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the residence. Burial will take place at Stanton.

J. L. Moffatt - Born in village of Green, Chenango
Co., N. Y., Sept 20, 1827.

County. The old Warrior died in Twiggs County and was buried October 29, 1819.⁸ There is no record of when and where Theresa Woodson Moffett, second wife of Gabriel C. Moffett, died. Gabriel C. Moffett, Jr. attorney of Marion married Miss Agnes Fleming daughter of James Fleming of Columbia County on 17 May 1820 at Marion, Twiggs County, Georgia; Reverend Fulgham performed the ceremony. On September 14, 1820 the same newspaper announced that Gabriel H. Moffett, Jr., had died in Twiggs County, Georgia.⁹

Except for the wife and family of John C. Moffett who remained in Hancock County, Georgia until about 1818, the remainder of the children of Gabriel and Theresia Woodson Moffett died or migrated. From the size of the properties owned by Moffett family members, it is apparent that they all lived fairly prosperous lives.

Although not mentioned prior to this time, Mr. Frank C. Moffett, Olympia, WN maintains that although HENRY MOFFETT did not name ELIAS MOFFETT or any of his descendants in his will, that Elias was a in fact son of HENRY and Mary or Hannah Anderson, brother of HENRY Dcd of Perry County, AL. Elias Moffett married Matilda Ann b ca 1790? and their children were:

1. ELI b ca 1781, GA . Veteran of War of 1812. m Matilda Scarborough, b ca 1800 MS, m MS date ? Founder of Moffettville, AL. Children::

A. GABRIEL m 1. Rebecca Williams 9-6-1841 Mobile Co, AL.

B. ELI Died young - Age 16

C THOMAS T. b ca 1823 MS m 6-16-1846 Moble Co, AL. m Jane Harriet Ashley b ca 1839 AL

D. IRA E. b ca 1831 AL. Settled in Clark Co, MS

E. MATILDA b ca 1833 AL

There likely were other children.

The Eli Moffett family had been kinder than most to their slaves in Ante Bellum times, and for this reason many remained in their homes after emancipation and were given land at moderate prices. Many descendants of Moffetts, African-Americans and White, remain in South Alabama and Southeast Mississippi.

Dear Mrs. Strickland,

I am so hoping you will be able to shed some light on a family mystery so many reserchers have not been able to solve. Margeret Elizebeth Francis, our ancestor, is the most difficult to trace to her parents. She married John C. Moffett, in columbia Co. Ga in 1802 and was found in Miss. in 1820 or so No one has found who her parents were.

I am sending a copy of information found in the Library. It shows that family knowledge was a contributor of information. Could you please send this information to me? This couple had A Nathional Francis as a Bondsman along with John,s Uncle John Moffett as the bondsman. This Nathional Francis was not heard from again. Many reserchers in Moffett geneolgy belive Nathional was a bro., or some relative. No one named any of the lines this name.

Could Elizebeth Francis be the daughter od Rev. War Patriot John Francis and Rhoda Wright? John Moffett,s son Gabriel Named his s John Wright and John Moffett named his daughter Rhoda, ? Some of the Reserches seem to think Elizebeth Francis was the issue o Warham Easley and Ann Woodson thru their Daughter Susan, who married Joseph Francis, but no connection has been made between Joseph Francis and wife Susan. to Elizebeth

If you can help me Or can send my request to some one who can, it would be very much appreciated.

Thank You

Dear Faye:

It was wonderful having such a good answer to my letter so quickly and I can't tell you how happy I am to find another enthusiastic searcher. I have been corresponding with John Wesley Moffett in Jackson for several months and find him almost as avid as I am. I have helped him a great deal and he, in turn, has helped me and I think he will keep on with the search. I never fail to follow a lead because one can't ever know just where the missing "nugget" will be. I am very much interested in the living relatives as well as those who have gone before - you see, growing up, I was never conscious of the Moffett or Sumrall names - was just conscious of the Loper, Gilbert, Nutt, Morgan, and Ware names. I was the youngest of seven children and by the time I came along all of the great uncles and aunts were gone and I never had but the one living grandfather and he died when I was seven - never knew a single grandmother. My mother was not interested in family history - she was a student by nature, loved to read and learn but thought it a waste of time to spend hours on family records. My father was so busy he hardly ever chatted with me - he was a very busy, successful, big man in a little, bitty town - so I just never thought much about cousins except my first cousins.

First, I shall tell you about my Morgan great-grandfather - I didn't dream that you would be interested in that line when I wrote you last week so that's why I didn't tell you more about him. He was THOMAS MADISON MORGAN, born in 1820 in South Carolina - the 1880 census record says Georgia but the others say S. C. and his 78 year-old granddaughter who is still living says that it is S. C.. I have no idea who his parents ~~were~~ wish to heavens I did! I sent a professional genealogist down to Jones and Clark County to copy records in the courthouses and I have Benjamin's will but there is no mention of Thomas so I'm sure that John Wesley's Morgan was not a sister of mine ^(my father) - they were probably related but I may have a time proving it. My Martha Moffett was already married to Thomas Morgan when the 1850 census record was made so that is why you didn't find her among the James Carrington Moffett children. I found a Thomas Morgan and another male - both between 20 - 30 living alone in Jasper Co. 1840 record. In 1850, I found Thomas, Martha, 19, Elizabeth Cal (?) 2, and Martha 1, (I suppose she is the one always referred to as "Aunt Mat") - I never knew her but the older members of my family did. In 1860, still in Jasper County, I found T. M. Morgan, 39, Martha, 29, with several children, one of whom is M. T. who was my Margaret Teresa, age, 8, who married Absalom Loper and then had my father, Floyd Loper, born 1871. In 1870, Newton County (where my father was born) I have Thomas Morgan, 49, etc. but my Margaret has already married and is living with her husband and his family in the same county and I have her record. In 1880, I have Thomas Morgan, 60, Newton County, and Martha, 50, with their James 25, Albert 22, Porter, 19, and Ella, 13. Margaret Morgan Loper died after that and Absalom Loper then married his sister-in-law, Ella Morgan. I have been to Thomas Morgan's and Martha Moffett Morgan's graves in Newton County. But I still can't tell you who his parents were. The Jasper County records were destroyed, as you well know, I'm sure, so any wills or deeds would all be gone. Newton County records were all destroyed up until 1873 so that has been another stumbling block on my father's lines. Old Benjamin and Thomas' father could have been brothers but how in the world can I prove it? I have just written to someone who was born in Hattiesburg and now lives in Meridian and I'm hoping and praying that she can enlighten me.

Now about the Moffetts. I was amazed to see the John Finley Moffett name on the Jasper Co. record and that certainly looks as if the Marshall County Moffetts

Pascagoula Public Library
Genealogy & Local History Dept.
Moffett Family

might have come from Jasper County. No one with whom I talked down in Cayce and Victoria seemed to have any idea about Jasper. Of course, Claud Finley Carrington's mother died when he was so young that he probably never heard much about her family. Perhaps your mother knows more. Do you have the Marshall County census records that show when they first moved into Marshall Co.? If you don't have, maybe I could run the 1850 and 1860 records and find out something about them. Do you know where your Moffetts lived before they moved to Miss.? There were Moffetts in Virginia, South Carolina, North Carolina, and Georgia all at the same time. The Obion Moffetts or Maffatts came from S. C. to Tennessee - as far as I can figure, ~~my Moffetts~~ were never in Tennessee unless some of them moved from Miss. into Tennessee. All of the Moffetts whose names I recognize in the census records in Miss. gave S. C. as their birthplace except the younger ones who said Georgia (born on their way to Miss).

Does your Mother know who Miss Ruby Moffatt is? She is a lovely former teacher and demonstration agent and she was born in Barton out from Holly Springs in Marshall County. I can't say for sure that we are related - one of her great-grandfathers was Samuel Moffett or Att and she said that she thinks Anniston, Ala. was somehow connected with his family - of course, the Moffetts may have stopped there on their way from Georgia and S. C.. She seems to think there is a connection between her family and the Obion family. Does your mother like this sort of work too? I hope so because she probably is a big help to you. Do you think it would do me any good to drive down to Byhalia to talk with Mrs. Lois Brooks whose mother was a Moffett? Can you keep all of these questions straight?

Please pardon all of my typing mistakes. I write so much and so fast that my fingers and mind don't coordinate very well - I have been typing six months and I'm disappointed that I'm so poor at it.

I'll be looking forward to another good letter from you - don't try to be the least bit formal - call me Cornelia, abbreviate, and do all sorts of time-saving tricks.

The best of luck to you each day in your search!

Sincerely,

Cornelia Lipscomb

Dear Wilson and Faye,

I started a letter to you on the 27th but didn't finish so I am rewriting (I carried it in my pocket and you can imagine what it looks like now after two weeks.)

I hope both of you are OK. We are all alright at my house - Mother went to the Hospital in Lumberton Saturday for a check-up - to try to find out why her chest hurts.

Wilson, do you recall the remark that I made about the 1829 letter looking like it had been typed on my typewriter. Well, I was right. Mother typed the letter years ago and sent it to Wesley. He sent you the copy that Mother sent him. (Mother didn't take typing in school.) Mother doesn't have the original but I think I know where it is and may be able to get a photostat for you.

Faye, a man asked me two weeks ago if I was related to Finley Moffett in Union County (New Albany). He said he thought Finley was living in Memphis now. He didn't know anything else about him.

My grandfather was Benjamin Morgan Moffett born 9-18-1867 and died 6-13-1906 and Buried in Poplarville Miss. I got these dates from his tombstone last week. He was the son of ^{Thomas} Tom Moffett and Louisa Morgan Moffett both buried at Green Creek Church Cemetery at Petal Miss. Dad said he didn't think his granddad had a second name.

Grandmother was Stella Owena Champlin Moffett-Watts, born in Pass Christian Miss and died Charlotte N.C. 2-28-1949.

I will bring my records next trip. Hope to see you in 3 or 4 weeks.

Sincerely, John Moffett

Dear Faye:

It was wonderful having such a good answer to my letter so quickly and I can't tell you how happy I am to find another enthusiastic searcher. I have been corresponding with John Wesley Moffett in Jackson for several months and find him almost as avid as I am. I have helped him a great deal and he, in turn, has helped me and I think he will keep on with the search. I never fail to follow a lead because one can't ever know just where the missing "nugget" will be. I am very much interested in the living relatives as well as those who have gone before - you see, growing up, I was never conscious of the Moffett or Sumrall names - was just conscious of the Loper, Gilbert, Nutt, Morgan, and Ware names. I was the youngest of seven children and by the time I came along all of the great-uncles and aunts were gone and I never had but the one living grandfather and he died when I was seven - never knew a single grandmother. My mother was not interested in family history - she was a student by nature, loved to read and learn but thought it a waste of time to spend hours on family records. My father was so busy he hardly ever chatted with me - he was a very busy, successful, big man in a little, bitty town - so I just never thought much about cousins except my first cousins.

First, I shall tell you about my Morgan great-grandfather - I didn't dream that you would be interested in that line when I wrote you last week so that's why I didn't tell you more about him. He was THOMAS MADISON MORGAN, born in 1820 in South Carolina - the 1880 census record says Georgia but the others say S. C. and his 78 year-old granddaughter who is still living says that it is S. C.. I have no idea who his parents ^{were} - wish to heavens I did! I sent a professional genealogist down to Jones and Clark County to copy records in the courthouses and I have Benjamin's will but there is no mention of Thomas so I'm sure that John Wesley's Morgan was not a sister of mine ^(the former) - they were probably related but I may have a time proving it. My Martha Moffett was already married to Thomas Morgan when the 1850 census record was made so that is why you didn't find her among the James Carrington Moffett children. I found a Thomas Morgan and another male - both between 20 - 30 - living alone in Jasper Co. 1840 record. In 1850, I found Thomas, Martha, 19, Elizabeth Cal (?) 2, and Martha 1, (I suppose she is the one always referred to as "Aunt Mat") - I never knew her but the older members of my family did. In 1860, still in Jasper County, I found T. M. Morgan, 39, Martha, 29, with several children, one of whom is M. T. who was my Margaret Teresa, age, 8, who married Absalom Loper and they had my father, Floyd Loper, born 1871. In 1870, Newton County (where my father was born) I have Thomas Morgan, 49, etc. but my Margaret has already married and is living with her husband and his family in the same county and I have her record. In 1880, I have Thomas Morgan, 60, Newton County, and Martha, 50, with their James, 25, Albert 22, Porter, 19, and Ella, 13. Margaret Morgan Loper died after that and Absalom Loper then marries his sister-in-law, Ella Morgan. I have been to Thomas Morgan's and Martha Moffett Morgan's graves in Newton County. But I still can't tell you who his parents were. The Jasper County records were destroyed, as you well know, I'm sure, so any wills or deeds would all be gone. Newton County records were all destroyed up until 1873 so that has been another stumbling block on my father's lines. Old Benjamin and Thomas' father could have been brothers but how in the world can I prove it? I have just written to someone who was born in Hattiesburg and now lives in Meridian and I'm hoping and praying that she can enlighten me.

Now about the Moffetts. I was amazed to see the John Finley Moffett name on the Jasper Co. record and that certainly looks as if the Marshall County Moffetts might have come from Jasper County. No one with whom I talked down in Cayce and Victoria seemed to have any idea about Jasper. Of course, Claud Finley Carrington's mother died when he was so young that he probably never heard much about her family. Perhaps your mother knows more. Do you have the Marshall County census records that show when they first moved into Marshall Co.? If you don't have, maybe I could run the 1850 and 1860 records and find out something about them. Do you know where your Moffetts lived before they moved to Miss.? There were Moffetts in Virginia, South Carolina, North Carolina, and Georgia all at the same time. The Obion Moffetts or Maffatts came from S. C. to Tennessee - as far as I can figure, my Moffetts were never in Tennessee unless some of them moved from Miss. into Tennessee. All of the Moffetts whose names I recognize in the census records in Miss. gave S. C. as their birthplace except the younger ones who said Georgia (born on their way to Miss).

Do you think it would do me any good to drive down to Byhalia to talk with Mrs. Lois Brooks whose mother was a Moffett? Can you keep all of these questions straight?

Hi Wilson and Fay,

I know I am the slowest person that ever was, I finally made ~~the~~ the second bunch of pictures, I go out and make the other one of them days.

We enjoyed seeing you all. Everyone here's A.K. I saw Richard to night. David was here last week; stayed a week.

We sure have been busy here on the farm. I know everything's the same way.

I'll close for this time.

See you.

THE MOFFAT COAT OF ARMS

This Coat of Arms depicts, high in the heavens, a bank of black, lowering Clouds, The Clouds of Adversity; standing out in startling distinctness, partly reclining in their midst, is the Cross of Christ - dazzling white in the reflected unseen glory from above; the Cross, in its turn, throws the rays of faith upon the earth and its troubles below.

The scene below represents a Pelican feeding her young with the flesh and blood of her own breast, rather than they should perish.

The Motto "Melius Est Mori Quam Pati Ignominiam." Literally translated is "It is better to die than suffer dishonor" and is usually translated "Death before Dishonor".

The present day tradition that goes with this Coat of Arms is that it was presented by Constantine the Great, the first Christian Emperor of Rome, in the 4th Century to Senator Moffat of Scotland, for striking deeds of Valor.

■ LACEY NICOLE MICHELLE COWART, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Anthony Cowart of Gulfport, was born Oct. 15, 1990, at Memorial Hospital at Gulfport.

Maternal grandparents are Mrs. Patricia Wigley and Phil Cuevas of Gulfport. The maternal great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Maybin Cuevas Sr. of Pass Christian.

Paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Cowart Jr. of Gulfport. The paternal great-grandmother is Mrs. Ruby Cowart, also of Gulfport.

The mother is the former Theresa Kay Cuevas of Gulfport.

Cuevas, Moffat

■ Trinity United Methodist Church in Gulfport was the setting Nov. 10, 1990 for the marriage of Beth Moffat of Gulfport and Tim Cuevas of Long Beach. The Rev. Gilbert Walker officiated.

Parents of the couple are Rev. and Mrs. Curtis Moffat of Gulfport and Ms. Carol Cuevas of Long Beach.

The bride was given in marriage by her parents. Kathy Moffat of Gulfport was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Sandra Moffat of Vicksburg, Debra Savarese of Long Beach, Pam Daniels of Biloxi, and Lena Beth Cuevas and Lea Bellon, both of Gulfport.

Dale Cuevas of Gulfport attended as best man. Groomsmen were Keith Moffat of Vicksburg, Jeff Savarese of Long Beach, Gilbert Walker of Nashville, Tenn., Jimmy Ratliff of Jackson and Bubby Cuevas of Delisle. Jeffrey Savarese of Long Beach served as junior groomsman.

Mr. and Mrs. Cuevas

Nuptial music was provided by organist Jonathan Gates and vocalist Misty Stokes. Following a wedding trip to Gatlinburg, Tenn., the couple will live in Long Beach.

Old 'Blue Stocking' Cemetery Restored

S. D. WILSON DUVAL
PASCAGOULA, MISSISSIPPI

Holly Springs—There are many lost and long abandoned cemeteries in Marshall County, but perhaps only one established under the auspices of the Associated Reformed Presbyterian Church in this immediate area of the state.

The old cemetery is about one mile west of Cayce, a small village in the northwestern part of the county. The patriarch of the community was J. Finley Moffett, of South Carolina, who bought several sections of land from a Chickasaw Indian chief but perhaps only one established soon after Moffett's arrival when a group of related families from adjoining counties in North and South Carolina came to settle on Moffett's holdings. As was often the case in pioneer days the settlers brought their church organization and pastor along with them.

The church was named Mt. Carmel, and its charter members were wealthy planters, descendants of the Puritans of New England. Their creed was very strict, and required constant service to the Lord, well earning the title of "Blue Stockings."

Charter members of the Mt. Carmel Church were the Mofetts, Brooks, Smith, Weeds, Stewarts, Boyds, and others whose names are too dim to be read.

There were few A.R.P. churches in north Mississippi, and ministers were scarce. When the old pastors died, visiting members to Mt. Carmel had to travel by train from New Albany, Mississippi, or Covington, Tennessee, to Victoria on the Frisco Railroad, and thence by buggy or horseback to the church. This was quite a hardship, and services became very irregular. Consequently, the church grew weaker and the membership began attending other churches in the community.

In 1922, the church building was razed and sold, and the church was disbanded. The cemetery was seldom used, and by the 1860s became overgrown and abandoned as a burial ground.

In 1967, Mrs. William W. Leigh, of Little Rock, Arkansas, a descendant of John Smith, one of the pioneers buried in the cemetery, became interested in restoring the old burial ground.

Enlisting the aid of Mrs. Clara Fleming, of Byhalia, whose husband was a grandson of John Smith, and Mrs. Judy Bowlan, of Victoria, also a descendent of John Smith, Mrs. Leigh set about the task of restoring the old cemetery. There are 97 monuments in the cemetery, many are broken and badly weathered.

The arch over the gateway to the cemetery bears this inscription: Mt. Carmel Associated Reformed Presbyterian Church. A memorial tablet with this inscription was placed upon the arch: In memory of Louisa H. Smith and John (Buffalo) Smith, Fairfield Co. South Carolina.

The church of the Associated Reformed Church stood just north of cemetery. It is thought that the church was built during first settlers arrived. Land for the church was donated by J. Finley Moffett, and for the cemetery by Guy Millen, another pioneer settler. Some of the epitaphs read:

"In memory of Nathaniel Winn, born Sept. 8, 1798 died July 22, 1883; Ann H., wife of J. B. Stewart: Rest mother while your children weep; John McHenry, born March 13, 1781, died Nov. 3, 1860; Nancy J. Consort of Wm. M. Martin, of Fairfield, S.C., Feb. 27, 1857 aged 31 years, 10 months, and 12 days. The Lord giveth and the Lord hath taken away. Blessed be the name of the Lord; Rosamond Moffett, died Jan. 4, 1852 in the 74th year of her life, her life was a triumph of virtue and death a triumph of Faith: In memory of Wm. J. McCloud who departed this life on June 3, 1949, aged 22 years and 4 months; Elizabeth Wiseman died March 9, 1859, aged 43 years. Lo'. Where this silent marble weeps, a friend, a wife, a mother sleeps. A heart within whose sacred cell the peaceful virtues loved to dwell.

The cemetery now beautifully restored, will long remain a memorial to this ancient "blue stocking" church of long past years.
